FACTS ABOUT TIME.

How the Elusive Moments Have Been Viewed by Many Writers.

Time is hard to define. According to the best poets time has a heavy foot, a toot, a forelock and breakable legs. It travels in divers paces; it ambles, trots, gallops, runs, rolls and stands still. It has whips; it crops roses. So far it seems like a horse. But it has a forefinger; also a reckless hand that writes wrinkles. This explodes the horse theory. Furthermore, time flies; hence "a bird of time." Time is money. Being also a bird, time is a gold eagle, perhaps. Money is the root of all evil, and procrastination is the thief of time. Therefore procrastination is (1) a chicken thief, (2) a good thing.

The wickedness of time is beyond question. It is vindictive. "I wasted time," mourns King Richard, "and now doth time waste me." Time waits for no man. Time shall throw a dart at the man. Time robs us of our joys. Time will tell. Time is unthinking. Time presses its debtors. The time is out of joint, and well may it be, considering what a nuisance it is.

The members of the Orange Valley Lyceum were entertained by the Bloomfield Catholic Lyceum Wednesday night at a reception and entertainment. The visitors were welcomed by Edward Gruber and the response was made by President Dalton, of the Orange Valley Lyceum. There were songs by Thoma North, Eddie Byrnes, Miss B. Dunn and Miss Conroy. Next Tuesday the Bloomfield members will be the guests of the Valley Lyceum.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kirkglass Gabs of Park avenue, gave a reception in honor of Miss Lillian Biddle, of Potter Hill, R. I., Wednesday night. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stultz, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sherwood, Miss Allan and Mr. Dobler, all of East Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ward, Miss Clara Lind, George E. Baldwin, Philip B. Gabs and Miss Nellie Mattheus, all of this town.
